

Make your Own Bookmark!

What you'll need:

Scissors
Hole Punch
String or Ribbon
Crayons, Markers, or
Colored Pencils

Step 1:
Color the front of the
bookmark.

Step 2:
Color the front of the
bookmark.

Step 3:
Use a hole punch or scissors
to carefully cut a hole in the top circle.

Step 4:
Pull a string or ribbon through
the hole and make a knot.

Now you have a bookmark
with fun facts about the Las Vegas Wash. Use it to mark
the place in your favorite book. To make it last longer,
lamine it.

KILLDEER

Make your Own Bookmark!

What you'll need:

Scissors
Hole Punch
String or Ribbon
Crayons, Markers, or
Colored Pencils

Step 1:
Color the front of the
bookmark.

Step 2:
Color the front of the
bookmark.

Step 3:
Use a hole punch or scissors
to carefully cut a hole in the
top circle.

Step 4:
Pull a string or ribbon through
the hole and make a knot.

Now you have a bookmark
with fun facts about the Las Vegas Wash. Use it to mark
the place in your favorite
book. To make it last longer,
lamine it.

KILLDEER

FUN FACTS

The Las Vegas Wash is 12 miles long.

The Las Vegas Wash is located in the southeast Las Vegas Valley.

The Wash provides habitat for many kinds of animals including foxes, coyotes, rabbits, snakes and lizards.

Over 200 kinds of birds have been identified in the Las Vegas Wash.

Several different kinds of sources of water feed the Las Vegas Wash including stormwater, shallow groundwater, urban runoff and water treatment outflows.

Evidence of Native American use 5,000 years ago has been found near the Wash.

The Las Vegas Wash helps clean water before it enters Lake Mead.

Protecting the Las Vegas Wash is important for all of us.

FUN FACTS

The Las Vegas Wash is 12 miles long.

The Las Vegas Wash is located in the southeast Las Vegas Valley.

The Wash provides habitat for many kinds of animals including foxes, coyotes, rabbits, snakes and lizards.

Over 200 kinds of birds have been identified in the Las Vegas Wash.

Several different kinds of sources of water feed the Las Vegas Wash including stormwater, shallow groundwater, urban runoff and water treatment outflows.

Evidence of Native American use 5,000 years ago has been found near the Wash.

The Las Vegas Wash helps clean water before it enters Lake Mead.

Protecting the Las Vegas Wash is important for all of us.